

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

JEFFERY A. BAILEY,

Plaintiff,

V.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, et al.,

Defendant.

CASE NO. 3:22-CV-5902-BJR-DWC

ORDER DECLINING TO SERVE

The District Court has referred this action to United States Magistrate Judge David W.

Christel. This matter is before the Court on plaintiff's filing a proposed amended complaint. Dkt.

4. Having reviewed and screened Plaintiff's amended complaint under 28 U.S.C. § 1915A, the Court finds Plaintiff has failed to state a claim, but provides Plaintiff leave to file a second amended pleading by March 31, 2023, to cure the deficiencies identified herein.

I. BACKGROUND

Plaintiff initiated this matter on November 21, 2022. Dkt. 1. The Court declined to serve plaintiff's originally-filed complaint because it was not clear whether plaintiff sought to pursue a civil action for damages pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 or a habeas petition for release from 1 confinement. Dkt. 3. The Court required plaintiff to file either an amended complaint or—if he 2 sought release—a habeas petition. Id.

3 Plaintiff has filed an amended complaint bringing civil claims under § 1983. Dkt. 4.
4 Plaintiff contends his due process rights have been violated because he has been held more than 5 127 days since a finding of incompetency, without admission to Western State Hospital for 6 competency restoration services. Id. at 4–5. Plaintiff contends this delay violates his due process
7 rights and seeks an award of monetary damages. Id. at 9. Plaintiff names as defendants Thurston
8 County Prosecuting Attorney Tim Tunheim, the Thurston County Prosecutor’s Office, the State
9 of Washington, Western State Hospital (“WSH”) and the Washington State Department of Social 10 and Health Services (“DSHS”). Id. at 3.

II. DISCUSSION

12 | A. Legal Standards

Under the Prison Litigation Reform Act of 1995, the Court is required to screen complaints brought by prisoners seeking relief against a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity. 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a). The Court must “dismiss the complaint, or any portion of the complaint, if the complaint: (1) is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted; or (2) seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief.” Id. at (b); 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2); see Barren v. Harrington, 152 F.3d 1193 (9th Cir. 1998).

20 In order to state a claim for relief under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a plaintiff must show: (1) he 21 suffered a violation of rights protected by the Constitution or created by federal statute, and (2)
22 the violation was proximately caused by a person acting under color of state law. See Crumpton
23 v. Gates, 947 F.2d 1418, 1420 (9th Cir. 1991). The first step in a § 1983 claim is therefore to

1 identify the specific constitutional right allegedly infringed. Albright v. Oliver, 510 U.S. 266, 271
 2 (1994).

3 To satisfy the second prong, a plaintiff must allege facts showing how individually
 4 named defendants caused, or personally participated in causing, the harm alleged in the 5 complaint. See Leer v. Murphy, 844 F.2d 628, 633 (9th Cir. 1988); Arnold v. IBM, 637 F.2d 1350,
 6 1355 (9th Cir. 1981). A person subjects another to a deprivation of a constitutional right when 7 committing an affirmative act, participating in another's affirmative act, or omitting to perform an 8 act which is legally required. Johnson v. Duffy, 588 F.2d 740, 743 (9th Cir. 1978). Sweeping
 9 conclusory allegations against an official are insufficient to state a claim for relief. Leer, 844 F.2d
 10 at 633. Further, a § 1983 suit cannot be based on vicarious liability alone, but must allege the 11 defendant's own conduct violated the plaintiff's civil rights. City of Canton v. Harris, 489 U.S.
 12 378, 385-90 (1989).

13 B. Improper Defendants

14 Plaintiff names as defendants several governmental entities—the State of Washington
 15 and two of its agencies, and the Thurston County Prosecutor's Office—that cannot be sued under 16 § 1983. In addition, plaintiff names an individual prosecutor as a defendant but alleges no
 17 personal participation in the alleged wrongs and no facts demonstrating that prosecutorial
 18 immunity would not foreclose an action for damages.

19 1. State Entities

20 Neither the State of Washington nor arms of the state, including WSH and DSHS, are 21 proper defendants in a § 1983 case. Such a claim may only be brought against "persons" acting
 22 under color of state law. 42 U.S.C. § 1983. However, the Supreme Court has held a state is not a
 23 "person" for purposes of § 1983. Will v. Michigan Dep't of State Police, 491 U.S. 58, 71 (1989)
 24 ("a State is not a person within the meaning of § 1983"); Hale v. Arizona, 993 F.2d 1387, 1398-

1 99 (9th Cir. 1993) (en banc) (Arizona Department of Corrections is an arm of the State of 2 Arizona). Consequently, a State cannot be sued for damages or injunctive relief. Arizonans for 3 Off. Eng. v. Arizona, 520 U.S. 43, 69 (1997) (“we have held that § 1983 actions do not lie against 4 a State”).

5 Additionally, the Eleventh Amendment to the United States Constitution bars a person
 6 from suing a state in federal court without the state’s consent, and there is no evidence the State
 7 of Washington has waived its Eleventh Amendment immunity in federal courts. See Seminole
 8 Tribe of Florida v. Florida, 517 U.S. 44, 72 (1996) overruled in part by Cent. Va. Cnty. College
 9 v. Katz, 546 U.S. 356, 363 (2006); Nat. Res. Def. Council v. California Dep’t of Transp., 96 F.3d
 10 420, 421 (9th Cir. 1996). The State of Washington is therefore immune from suit.

11 The State of Washington and its agencies cannot be sued under § 1983 and are improper 12 defendants in this case.

13 2. Municipal Entities

14 The Thurston County Prosecutor’s Office is likewise not a legal entity capable of being 15 sued. Rather, the municipality, Thurston County, would be the proper defendant. See Monell v.
 16 New York City Dept. of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658, 690, 98 S.Ct. 2018, 56 L.Ed.2d 611 (1978);
 17 Wright v. Clark County Sheriff’s Office, 2016 WL 1643988, *2 (W.D. Wash. April 26, 2016). To 18 set forth a § 1983 claim against a municipality, a plaintiff must show the defendant’s employees or 19 agents acted through an official custom, pattern, or policy permitting deliberate indifference to, or 20 violating, the plaintiff’s civil rights, or the entity ratified the unlawful conduct. Id. at 690-91. A 21 plaintiff must show (1) deprivation of a constitutional right; (2) the municipality has a policy; (3)
 22 the policy amounts to deliberate indifference to a plaintiff’s constitutional rights; and (4) the policy
 23 is the moving force behind the constitutional violation. See Oviatt v. Pearce, 954 F.3d 1470, 1474
 24 (9th Cir. 1992).

1 A municipality will not be liable under § 1983 for acts of negligence by its employees or 2 for an unconstitutional act by a non policy-making employee. Davis v. City of Ellensburg, 869 F.2d
 3 1230, 1234-35 (9th Cir. 1989). Evidence of mistakes by adequately trained personnel or the 4 occurrence of a single incident of unconstitutional action by a non-policy-making employee is not 5 sufficient to show the existence of an unconstitutional custom or policy. Thompson v. City of Los 6 Angeles, 885 F.2d 1439, 1444 (9th Cir. 1989).

7 Plaintiff has not named Thurston County as a defendant and has also not alleged facts to 8 show Thurston County is liable. See Dkt. 1-2. If plaintiff seeks to sue Thurston County, he must 9 name Thurston County as a defendant, allege facts sufficient to meet the required elements of a
 10 claim against a municipality, and show Thurston County violated his constitutional or statutory 11 rights.

12 3. Prosecutor Tim Tunheim

13 Finally, plaintiff has named Thurston County Prosecutor, Tim Tunheim as a defendant.
 14 But plaintiff makes no allegations of any personal participation by defendant Tunheim in the 15 alleged violation of his constitutional rights. A § 1983 suit cannot be based solely on the basis of 16 supervisory responsibility or position; instead, plaintiff must allege a defendant's own conduct
 17 violated his civil rights. City of Canton, 489 U.S. at 385-90. Thus, plaintiff must allege some facts 18 that would support a claim that a supervisory defendant either personally participated in or 19 directed the alleged deprivation of constitutional rights, knew of the violations and failed to act
 20 to prevent them, or promulgated or implemented a deficient policy that 'itself is a repudiation of 21 constitutional rights' and is 'the moving force of the constitutional violation.'" Hansen v. Black,
 22 885 F.2d 642, 646 (9th Cir. 1989) (internal citations omitted); Taylor v. List, 880 F.2d 1040,
 23 1045 (9th Cir. 1989).

1 In addition, a prosecutor is immune from claims for damages “when performing the 2 traditional functions of an advocate.” Calhoun v. King Cty. Prosecuting Attorney's Office, 348
 3 F. App'x 299, 300 (9th Cir. 2009) quoting Kalina v. Fletcher, 522 U.S. 118, 131, 118 S.Ct. 502,
 4 139 L.Ed.2d 471 (1997). Prosecutorial immunity protects a prosecutor who “acts within his or 5 her authority and in a quasi-judicial capacity.” Asheleman v. Pope, 793 F.2d 1072, 1076 (9th Cir.
 6 1986) (citing Imbler, 424 U.S. at 430-31). “Such immunity applies even if it leaves ‘the 7 genuinely wronged defendant without civil redress against a prosecutor whose malicious or 8 dishonest action deprives him of liberty.’” Id. (quoting Imbler, 424 U.S. at 427). Defendant
 9 Tunheim is therefore immune from any claims for damages based upon action he has taken in his 10 capacity as an advocate.

11 III. INSTRUCTION TO PLAINTIFF AND THE CLERK

12 If Plaintiff intends to pursue a § 1983 civil rights action in this Court, he must file an 13 amended complaint and within the amended complaint, he must write a short, plain statement
 14 telling the Court: (1) the constitutional right Plaintiff believes was violated; (2) the name of the 15 person who violated the right; (3) exactly what the individual did or failed to do; (4) how the 16 action or inaction of the individual is connected to the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional 17 rights; and (5) what specific injury Plaintiff suffered because of the individual's conduct. See 18 Rizzo v. Goode, 423 U.S. 362, 371–72, 377 (1976). Each claim for relief must be simple, 19 concise, and direct.

20 Plaintiff shall present the amended complaint on the form provided by the Court. The 21 amended complaint must be legibly rewritten or retyped in its entirety, it should contain the same
 22 case number, and it may not incorporate any part of the original complaint by reference. The 23 amended complaint will act as a complete substitute for any previously filed complaint, and not 24

1 as a supplement. The Court will screen the amended complaint to determine whether it contains
2 factual allegations linking each defendant to the alleged violations of Plaintiff's rights.

3 If Plaintiff fails to file a second amended complaint or fails to adequately address the 4 issues raised herein on or before March 31, 2023, the undersigned will recommend dismissal of 5 this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915.

6 The Clerk is directed to send Plaintiff the appropriate forms for filing a 42 U.S.C. § 1983
7 civil rights complaint.

8 Dated this 28th day of February, 2023.
